Call to Worship

When the path leads nowhere, we become disoriented, and skies darken, how do we find peace, O God?

When farewells are too many, tears won't stop, and strength is gone, how do we rest, O God?

When hope is hard, love is lost, and light is dim,
you give us one more breath, O God.

*Prayer of Confession

Rev. Matt Nieman

Holy God, you are the Lord our God, who brought us out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. And yet our trust in you is fragile, easily crushed by our bent toward indifference—the dismissal of your faithfulness as a result of our forgetfulness. Our trust is fragile, easily broken by the slightest pause—an answer to prayer not instantly given, a request for peace not immediately felt. Our trust is fragile, easily displaced by gods of our own making—the god of self-sufficiency, chased at any cost, the god of illusion, pursued in any form. Lord, have mercy on us, through Christ, our Lord.

(please continue in silent prayer)

*The Peace

The Peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

Sermon

“Accessible Deities”

Rev. Matt Nieman

~ We Respond ~

Affirmation of Faith - The Apostles' Creed (Ecumenical)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

CAM CABIN TRIP

It is time for a trip to Townsend to take donated items to the CAM Craft Shop (Coalition of Appalachian Ministries).

We are going on Thursday October 29 with a stop at Elvira's Cafe for lunch on our way in. Anyone with craft and sewing items to donate can bring them to the church or call Debbie Long or Mikie Lancaster for a pick-up.

Besides the fabric, yarn, thread, buttons, zippers, and other sewing notions the crafters always love to get, there have been some special requests for old hymnals, insulabrite needed for hot pads, polyfill, quilt batting, and especially white thread. At the moment they don't need glass jars. Don't forget to save your burned-out light bulbs, as several styles of cute ornaments are created from them!

Elemental

Science & Faith at FPC

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22 AT 7:00 P.M.

Elemental: A Discussion of Science & Faith returns!

On October 22 at 7:00, our own Louise Stevenson will lead us in a generous conversation on how science and faith connect rather than conflict with each other.

As a Ph.D. scientist in the environmental sciences and a researcher at Oak Ridge National Lab – as well as a person of deep and vibrant faith – she is uniquely positioned to guide us in this shared experience. Whether you know a lot or a little about science and faith, just have questions, or know colleagues or neighbors who might be interested, invite a friend and join the conversation!

Soul Cafe

Sundays, until Advent, we will gather at 10:00am in Room A to experience Jesus’ message and understand a pattern of life that is fresh and surprising (even shocking at times). The goal is for everyone to hear, understand, discuss and confidently live the new life that Jesus intends for his people.

Starting in October, Pastor Matt’s Sunday School class will begin a new overview of the Old Testament titled, The Epic of Eden –Understanding the Old Testament as Your Story. Experience the real people, real places, and real faith of the Old Testament as the truth of your spiritual heritage comes alive in a whole new way.

The class will meet in the library at 10:00am and run through the fall.
