Call to Worship and Lighting of the Advent Candle — Shannon Needham

Each Sunday in Advent, we light one candle. These candles represent the growing light that Jesus brings to our dark world.
On the first Sunday of Advent, we light this candle in hope. When our world looks bleak, God's hope is nearer. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

*Prayer of Confession Rev. Matt Nieman

Lord Almighty, We are busy people. The holidays remind us of more and more things we want to add: more presents, more parties, more preparations.

We have become distracted by our own dreams and visions.

We have become busy with our own homes and plans.

We have allowed ourselves to be filled with false hopes.

We have not considered our ways.

Forgive us for putting ourselves first. Forgive us for putting your kingdom last.

Slow down our hands, and redirect our hearts. Remind us of your presence and send your Spirit upon us, so that we might build our lives to the glory of your name.

(please continue in silent prayer)

*The Peace

The Peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Prayer for Illumination — Mindy Houlihan

Gracious God, heaven and earth will pass away, but your words will not pass away: Your Word stands forever. May our generation be attentive so that, by the power of your Holy Spirit, we remember your ways and gladly do right, meeting you wherever and whenever you appear. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

Sermon — A Promise for Advent – "I will be with you" — Rev. Matt Nieman

God Receives Our Dedication

Affirmation of Faith (from Our World Belongs to God, paragraph 12, CRC 2008)

Even now, as history unfolds in ways we know only in part, we are assured that God is with us in our world, holding all things in tender embrace and bending them to his purpose.
The confidence that the Lord is faithful gives meaning to our days and hope to our years.
The future is secure, for our world belongs to God.

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

The Lord's Prayer

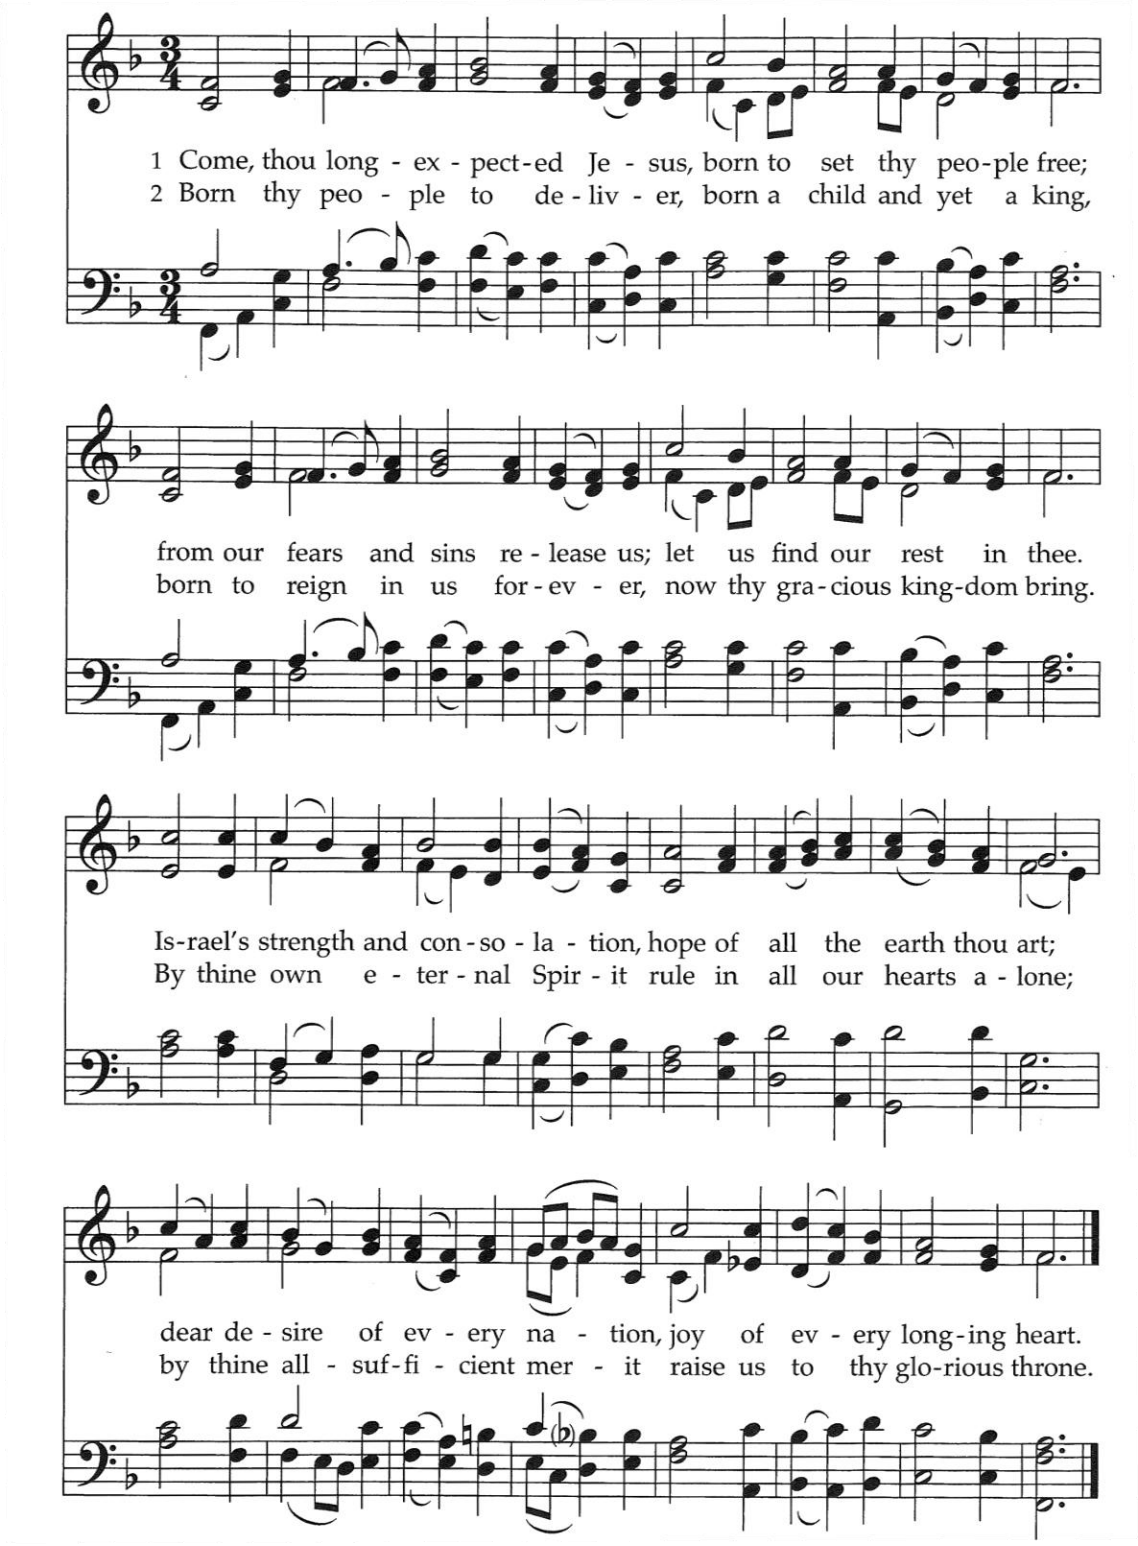

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
